

Larry Pierson, Realtor, Dunes Properties

Robert & Brian,

I wanted to take a moment and thank you for helping me find the perfect solution to professionally market my upscale listing in Wild Dunes. You have found the right blend of descriptive photography and video and combined that with outstanding website design and this has made a powerful selling tool. With eighty percent of home buyers shopping the internet it is imperative that a presence here be captivating, easy to navigate, thorough and professionally presented - www.35waterway.com has done just that. My clients loved the site and our office sales folks want the same site built for their listings. Thanks again for the quick response done reasonably and with so much class!

Sincerely,

Larry Pierson

P.S. This site has led to more high end listing leads - it's a fabulous selling tool.
