

Commercial Real Estate Marketing

Whether you own a hotel or manage a housing complex, move your potential clients to your doors by showing them your options. As more people shop online for travel and tourism, it is important to give the most information about your property as possible. Our professional virtual tours can feature a multitude of important facts, features, and information. Put Showcase To Work For You!

Our Commercial services are completely customized video productions that can boldly profile any commercial real estate. We specialize in marketing techniques in residential developments, hotels and resorts, corporate office buildings, commercial and retail space, and a variety of other property types.

Here are some of the items included in our package: This service includes a one page website with the following features

- Professional Photography
- Professional videography
- Interior, exterior and special feature footage
- Custom visual FX and motion graphics
- Script creation for narration
- Voiceover narration and music
- DVD authoring and duplication
- Custom DVDs with color labels
- High quality streaming internet video
- Posting to website or MLS
- And More!

Request a Quote